

Nowadays, people feel stressed and depressed from their job and daily life. Thus, F.4 English Group 5 students want to share their views on Happiness index. They pointed out their Happiness index is the way to reflect how happy the people are in a region or country. At last, they also encourage to face our daily life and challenges more happily and optimistically.

