

This time English Wednesday's performance, we are having two group of students which are F.3A and F.3CD1, bringing us to Norway and Iran. F.3A students present Norway with its traditional weaving dance to us, while F.3D1 students present Iranian culture which nose surgery is popular over there. Both of the group let us know more different countries around the world. For more interesting scenes about the performance, don't hesitate to visit our school Youtube channel now!

